Herewith are extracts from the Revised Laws of Massachusetts, Vol. I., Chap. 29.

SECTION 3. Physicians and midwives shall on or before the fifth day of each month report to the clerk of each city or town a correct list of all children born therein during the preceding month at whose birth they were present, stating the date and place of each birth, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, and the name, place of birth, and residence of the parents, the maiden name of the mother, and the occupation of the father. If the child is illegitimate, the name of, and other facts relating to, the father shall not be stated, except at the request in writing of both father and mother, filed with the return. The fee of the physician or midwife shall be twenty-five cents for each birth so reported, which shall be paid by the city or town where the report is made, upon presentation to the city or town treasurer of a certificate from the city or town clerk, stating that said births have been properly reported to him. A physician or midwife who neglects to report such list on or before the fifteenth day of the month shall for each offence forfeit not more than twenty-five dollars.

SECTION 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder, within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the city or town in which such child is born.

Blanks can be obtained on application to the Town Clerk.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. JORDAN,

Town Clerk.

REPORT OF INSPECTOR OF ANIMALS.

TO THE BOARD OF SELECTMEN OF HOPEDALE :—

Gentlemen : I submit to you my report for the year as inspector.

A general inspection of all cattle and swine and the premises where the same were kept was made during the year of 1903, and the written report of the condition of each barn and stable was sent to the Board of Cattle Commissioners. Shortly after the same was sent, and just after the ground had been covered by the state inspector, an order came in to make another inspection for the purpose of locating the dreaded foot and mouth disease, if any existed within the town limits. The town was carefully gone over where more than one cow was kept, and has been watched closely since the breaking out, but they have, up to the present time, discovered no signs of the same.

The town has been very fortunate in escaping all trouble from this disease.

Respectfully yours,

L. B. GASKILL,

Inspector of Animals.

It will be observed that the appropriation for general repairs was insufficient to cover the expenditures in that department. To keep the account as low as the figures given, however, the road commissioners were compelled to postpone certain repairs that would have been made had the appropriation permitted. The policy of the board has always been to give the town superior roads. As the mileage of first class roads has increased, repairs have become more expensive, and the same is true of labor and material. In view of these facts the road commissioners recommend an increase of one thousand dollars in the next appropriation for general repairs, making the total appropriation $5,500.

Respectfully submitted,

CHAS. E. PIERCE,
GEO. A. DRAPER,

RULES AND REGULATIONS

FOR THE

COMPANIES ATTACHED TO THE HOPEDALE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

ARTICLE I.

Each company may propose candidates for its department, specifying their ages, and, if minors, the certificate required by the fire ordinances.

All appointments shall be approved by the board of engineers, and returned to the company.

Whenever a candidate is rejected by the board of engineers, he will not be allowed to act as a member of the company. No person under eighteen years of age shall be appointed as a member of the department.

ARTICLE II.

It shall be the duty of the foremen of the several companies to make, or cause to be made, on the last Monday in January, annually, to the chief engineer, a statement of the condition of the engine or other apparatus, with an inventory of all the property intrusted to their care, and belonging to the town, together with a correct list of the names of the members, also special reports of all officers chosen, and all resignations, discharge of members, and all cases of neglect of duty or disobedience of orders. They shall also see that the engines, houses, and other apparatus are kept neat, clean and ready for immediate use, and the passage to said house clear of snow and other obstructions, preserve order in their several companies, and require and enforce a strict compliance with the town ordinances and regulations of the board of engineers. In their absence, the assistant foremen shall perform their duties, and at other times render them such assistance as they may require.

ARTICLE III.

Any member expecting to be absent from town two days, or more, shall be required to procure a substitute, to be approved by the foreman of his company, whose name he shall hand to the clerk of the company. But no member shall be allowed a substitute, except in case of sickness or absence from the town, and in no instance for a longer period than one month, except in case of sickness.

ARTICLE IV.

It is required of the members of the department, as a general rule, not to open the doors or windows of a building on fire, without a supply of water can be procured, and to be careful to avoid unnecessarily damaging furniture or other goods by water; at a fire where water cannot be procured, the members will endeavor to prevent the fire from spreading by means of buckets or otherwise. The members of each company will remain with the apparatus of which they have charge, except when otherwise directed by an engineer.

ARTICLE V.

In the absence of an engineer, on the arrival at a fire, as a general rule, the first company is to be taken to the nearest reservoir or place where a supply of water can be obtained, immediately placed in readiness for operation, and in case the fire cannot be reached for want of a sufficient quantity of hose, the officers will exert themselves to obtain a supply of water and pass it on towards or to the fire. Companies will not call upon each other for hose, but upon the engineers.

ARTICLE VI.

The Hook and Ladder company, on arriving at a fire, will take their station as near the same as under existing circumstances shall be thought expedient. The commanding officer will immediately on his arrival report himself to the engineer in charge.

ARTICLE VII.

Members of each company are to have control of the apparatus committed to their care, which is not to be handled, used, or in any way meddled with by the members of other companies, unless by permission of an engineer; and whenever at a fire one company shall have hose or other apparatus belonging to another, they shall in all cases promptly return the same to the company to whom it belongs.

ARTICLE VIII.

On no occasion shall any officer allow their company to run their engine or carriage in returning from a fire or alarm, or drill, and in all cases they shall keep to the right.

ARTICLE IX.

When any repairs shall be necessary upon any engine or carriage or other apparatus, the foreman shall give information to the chief engineer, if practicable, if not, to any engineer. No bills are to be paid until approved by the board of engineers.

ARTICLE X.

Water must not be taken from any reservoirs except in case of fire, or by order of an engineer.

ARTICLE XI.

Whenever a fire shall occur known to be out of Hopedale, no engine or apparatus shall be taken to said fire unless by the consent of the chief engineer or his assistants.

ARTICLE XII.

The members of the several companies regularly admitted and appointed, shall wear such caps, badges or insignia as the board of engineers shall from time to time direct to be furnished at the expense of the town; and no person or persons shall be permitted to wear the same, except under such restrictions and regulations as the board of engineers may direct.

ARTICLE XIII.

Every member of the fire department shall be held responsible for any property of the department entrusted to his care; and in case of loss or damage through neglect, its value shall be deducted from his compensation.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

OF THE

FIRE DEPARTMENT

AND CITIZENS, TO BE OBSERVED AT FIRES.

Adopted by the Board of Engineers of Hopedale, for preventing and extinguishing fires. .

Adopted by the town, October 14th, 1886.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the engineers, upon an alarm of fire, to immediately repair to, or near where, the fire may be, and to take proper measures that the several engines and other apparatus be arranged in the most advantageous situation, and duly worked for the effectual extinguishment of the fire; to require and compel assistance from all persons, as well as the members of the fire department, in extinguishing the fire, removing furniture, goods or other merchandise from any building on fire, or in danger thereof; to appoint guards to secure the same, and also in pulling down or demolishing any house or other building, if occasion requires; and further, to suppress all turmoil and disorder. It shall also be their duty to cause order to be preserved in going to, working at, or returning from fires, and at all other times when companies attached to the fire department are on duty.

SECTION 2. The chief engineer shall have the command at fires over all other engineers, all members of the fire department, and all other persons who may be present at fires, and shall direct all proper measures for the extinguishment of the fires, protection of property, preservation of order, and observance of the fire laws; provided; that no building on fire or in danger thereof, shall be pulled down, blown up or otherwise demolished, without the concurrence of two or more of the engineers, if present.

SECTION 3. In case of the absence of the chief engineer, the engineer next in rank who shall be present shall execute the duties of the officer, with full powers.

SECTION 4. If any member of either of the several companies belonging to the fire department shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform his duties, or shall be guilty of disorderly conduct, disobedience to the officers, or to any engineer, he may, for such offence, be discharged from the fire department, and shall be liable to a fine, not less than two, nor more than ten, dollars.

SECTION 5. All persons present, not members of either of the said companies, are hereby enjoined to obey the direction of any engineer given at a fire, and to render their services, if required by any engineer, under a penalty of not less than five, nor more than twenty, dollars; and it is enjoined upon the chief engineer to prosecute all violations of this section.

SECTION 6. It shall be the duty of such of the constables of the town as may be selected by the engineers for that service, to repair on the alarm of fire immediately to that place where the fire may be, and there to use their best skill and power, under the direction of the chief engineer, for the preservation of the public peace, the prevention of theft, destruction of property, and the removal of all suspected persons; for which service the constable shall receive such compensation as shall in each case be ordered by the engineers.

SECTION 7. And it is further ordered that no person shall carry any fire brands, lighted matches, or other ignited materials openly in the streets or thoroughfares of the town; and no owner or occupant of any dwelling house, shop, or other buildings, shall maintain, or cause to be erected, any defective chimney, hearth, oven, stove, or stovepipe, fire frame or other fixtures, or shall have a deposit of ashes, shavings, or other combustible material which may give just cause of alarm, or be the means of kindling or spreading fire, under penalty of not less than two, nor more than twenty, dollars.

SECTION 8. That if any chimney, stovepipe or flue within the town, where any other buildings are so near as to be endangered therefrom, shall take or be set on fire, the occupant of such house to which such chimney, stovepipe or flue appertains, shall forfeit and pay the sum of two dollars; provided it shall be lawful for any person to set fire to and burn his chimney or stovepipe between sunrise and noon, if the buildings contiguous are wet with rain or covered with snow.

SECTION 9. That no person shall discharge or set off any squibs, serpents, rockets, fire crackers, or other fire works, in any place within the town, without leave from an engineer, under a penalty of not more than twenty dollars.

SECTION 10. That no person shall make any bonfire, or fire for burning brush, rubbish or any other fire in the open air, in the night time, without leave from an engineer, under the penalty of not less than two, nor more than twenty, dollars.

SECTION 11. And it shall be the duty of the chief and other engineers to inquire for and examine into all shops, new buildings erecting, on other places, where defective chimneys, flues, stoves or stovepipes may be, and where shavings or other combustible material may be collected and deposited, and from time to time, and at all times, to be vigilant in taking care of, and the removal of the same, whenever in the opinion of any two of them the same may be dangerous to the security of the town from fire; and the owners or occupants of such defective chimneys, flues, stoves or stovepipes, shavings, or other combustible matter, who shall refuse or neglect to remove the same forthwith, after being ordered thereto by any two engineers in writing, shall forfeit and pay five dollars for each day afterwards that the same shall remain unmoved.

SECTION 12. All members of the fire department, while on duty at a fire, shall wear such badges as are provided for them, and any member refusing or neglecting to wear the same until the several companies shall be dismissed at roll call, shall forfeit all pay for his services for three months previous to such refusal or neglect, unless he can furnish an excuse that shall be satisfactory to a majority of the engineers.

During the year the board of engineers has purchased two extinguishers from brush fire appropriation, in order that there might be better facilities for fighting brush fires in the park system ; this explains in a measure why we have exceeded that appropriation.

The board has also been required to make an arrangement with the Hopedale stable in order that a man should be at the barn nights, Sundays, and holidays, in case an alarm of fire should be rung in. For this service we are obliged to pay fifty cents ($0.50) per night and two dollars and a half ($2.50) for Sundays and holidays. With the barn of the Hopedale stable in its present location, the board does not consider this as a satisfactory state of affairs, but this is the best arrangement that could be made.

For 1904 we would recommend the following appropriations:—

General appropriation	$1,400 00
Brush fires	100 00

If the present arrangement with the Hopedale stable is to be continued, we shall require an extra appropriation of $350.

All equipments of the department are in good working order.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. JENKINS,

CHAS. E. PIERCE,

FRED B. SWEET,

Board of Engineers.

Section 4. All official letters received, and copies of all letters written, shall be placed on file.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the selectmen to annually appraise the property of the town and include such appraisement in their report.

ARTICLE V.

CONCERNING TRUANTS.

Section 1. All children between the ages of seven and fifteen years, residing in the town, who may be found wandering about in the streets or public places of the town, having no lawful occupation or business, not attending school and growing up in ignorance, and such children as persistently violate the reasonable rules and regulations of the common school, shall be committed to the Worcester County Truant School for confinement, instruction and discipline.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of every truant officer, previous to making any complaint under these laws, to notify the truant or absentee from school, also his parent or guardian, of the offence committed, and of the penalty therefor; and if the truant officer can obtain satisfactory pledges for the restraint and reformation of the child, he may at his discretion forbear to prosecute, so long as such pledges are faithfully kept.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the school committee, the teachers of the public schools, and the citizens generally, to aid the truant officers as far as possible in the discharge of their duties.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the truant officers to keep a full record of all their official acts and make an annual report thereof to the school committee, who shall publish the same with their own report.

Section 5. Nothing in these By-Laws shall be so construed as to alter or impair the obligation and duty of teachers to enforce punctuality and regularity of attendance, and to preserve good order and discipline.

ARTICLE VI.

STREETS AND HIGHWAYS.

Section 1. Whenever the word "street" or "streets" is mentioned in these By-Laws, it shall be understood as meaning all alleys, lanes, courts, public squares and public places, including sidewalks and gutters, unless the contrary is expressed or the construction would be inconsistent with the manifest intent.

Section 2. The road commissioners shall have control of the streets and ways of the town.

Section 3. They shall cause the names of the several streets to be shown in convenient places in said streets, and no person shall remove, injure or deface said names.

fence, post, tree or edgestone, nor alter nor change the position or direction of any fence, post, tree or edgestone; nor swing any door or gate in, upon or over, nor change the grade or width of any street or public way, without the written permit of the road commissioners; and such permit shall prescribe the restrictions or limitations under which the same is granted.

Section 6. No person shall leave any wagon, cart or other vehicle, or coal, wood or other articles, in any street and suffer the same to remain over night, without maintaining a sufficient light over or near the same throughout the night.

Section 7. No person shall ride upon any vehicle on any sidewalk in the town.

Section 8. Whenever the practice of coasting on any of the streets in the town has become dangerous to the public safety, the selectmen shall post notices in conspicuous places on such streets or sidewalks, forbidding all persons to coast upon the same; and no person shall coast thereon after the posting of such notice.

Section 9. No person shall throw stones or other missiles; nor play at baseball or football, nor fly any kites, in any of the streets in the town.

Section 10. Three or more persons shall not stand in a group, or near each other on any sidewalk or street in such a manner as to obstruct or impede free passage, after having been requested by any constable to move on.

Section 11. No person shall pasture any cattle or other animal upon any street in the town, except within the limits of said street adjoining his own premises.

Section 12. No person shall tie or fasten any horse to any ornamental or shade tree in any street in the town, or wrongfully injure or abuse such tree in any other manner.

four hours after the ceasing to fall of any snow, cause the same to be removed therefrom.

Section 14. No person shall post nor paint any advertisement of any nature upon any building, fence, guide-board, rock, tree or other object without the written consent of the selectmen, in case the object is the property of the town.

ARTICLE VII.

Section 1. No person in a state of nudity shall bathe in any of the waters of the town between the hours of sunrise and sunset, in places exposed to public view or in the vicinity of any dwelling-house.

ARTICLE VIII.

Any person guilty of a violation of these By-Laws, shall pay a fine not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence; and all fines so recovered shall be paid into the town treasury.

ARTICLE IX.

These By-Laws shall go into effect upon their approval by the Superior Court, within and for the County of Worcester, or by some justice of said court, and upon such approval all votes of the town not in accord with these By-Laws shall be repealed.

The votes requiring repeal under Article nine, are as follows:

Voted: That the taxes be collected and paid in on or before September first.

Voted: That our annual town meeting be held the first Monday in March; that all officers that are required by law be voted for on one ballot.

During the past year the Park system has been materially enlarged by acquisition of properties at the upper end, including land belonging to the town of Hopedale not formerly included in their transfer, owing to a misunderstanding of the records. This land has been given to the Park department by vote of the town, and can be noted in the new map appended to the report, which shows all the later acquisitions in the shaded portions. We have also acquired land from the heirs of Chester Walker, including the spring near the northern line of our former holdings, not far from the Grafton & Upton Railway. Also a tract of land lying west of the Grafton & Upton Railway, formerly belonging to the Draper Company. While these purchases were not made for any present Park use, they will be valuable in connection with further development in years to come, especially in view of possible roadways to secure access to the western boundaries. By securing these holdings from private use, their tree groves are preserved, and the general landscape features of this part of the town kept inviolate. Considerable careful trimming and thinning out was continued through the winter season, the sale of the wood more than covering the cost of the labor.

At the lower end of the Park, the former unsightly dumping ground across the road from the playground has been graded and surfaced. A new road has been built, connecting Northrop street with the end of Hopedale street extension.

A most important feature of the park commissioners' duties for the year consisted in the defence of the suit against the town brought by Henry L. Patrick, for damages claimed in the taking for Park purposes of the strip of land on the east side of the pond, between the pond and Dutcher street. The commissioners originally awarded damages of $900 for this taking. In the suit, witnesses on behalf of Mr. Patrick testified that the land in question was worth from six to seven thousand dollars, including damages to adjoining property, whereas witnesses for the town of Hopedale placed the total damages at $900, after deducting betterments to adjoining property. The jury awarded $2500 damages, and the town paid interest on this sum for the time lapsing since the taking, and also the costs of the court. The town was also forced to assume the necessary expenses of hiring competent counsel to take charge of the case. The original award was made before the recent rapid growth and doubling of the main industry in the town, and the fact of such increase and growth possibly had a bearing on the award.

In order to assist in the preservation of game, the park commissioners formally erected signs on their property forbidding shooting and trapping on its premises. Hunters, however, have taken advantage of the fact that the pond was not under control of the park commissioners, and have therefore shot game from boats. The Draper Company has now co-operated with us by setting out signs containing the following language:—

NOTICE.

All persons are forbidden to enter upon the pond or lands of the Draper Company in the town of Hopedale for the purpose of shooting or trapping, under penalty of the law.

A reward of ten dollars will be paid to any person furnishing information which leads to the arrest and conviction of any persons entering upon said premises for the purposes aforesaid.

DRAPER COMPANY,
Hopedale, Mass.

During the year our superintendent, Mr. Fred A. Smith, left us to accept a much more remunerative position. His place was temporarily filled by Mr. John Gardner, and later by Mr. Walter F. Durgin, who has been given all the authority formerly belonging to Mr. Smith. Mr. Durgin is thoroughly acquainted with the Park property, having been a resident of Hopedale for years. Since engaging him as superintendent, he has been appointed a deputy fish and game commissioner by the state, and policeman and forest fireward, by the town.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society having donated a historical relic, in the shape of the front doorstep of the "Old House," to the town, the park commissioners have placed the same on the Ballou lot, as an interesting reminiscence of the earliest house erected in the town. A suitable descriptive tablet will be erected later.

The park commissioners wish to call attention to the fact that the upper part of the Park property is now well cleared and adaptable for use by picnic parties and others. It can be reached by team from Hazel street, the cross street leading from the Upton road north of the connection of the Upton road with the extension of Dutcher street. The electric cars will stop by request, at an entrance on the west side of the property. The whole territory is, of course, available by boats, and a boat landing has been built near the bridge. While Park property is intended for advancing legitimate pleasure, it is not the purpose of the commissioners to encourage its use for questionable purposes. A region intended for use by all citizens, including women and children, is not the place for drunken carousals, and after noting several violations, the commissioners succeeded in arresting four out of six parties who had brought intoxicating liquor on the premises, and they were served by the court with the maximum penalty for such offence.

For the coming season, the commissioners are considering a special improvement in the line of a bathhouse for use of men and boys who now have no open public facility in this line. There has been a persistent demand for accommodation of this character, which would have been considered in the past had not other improvements seemed more advisable, especially as the land available for the purpose was necessarily kept unimproved during the legal proceedings which affected it. The commissioners are intending to erect a suitable building within the limits of an appropriation similar to that granted last year, but if using funds for this purpose, must necessarily postpone improvements of other character.

We recommend an appropriation of $2,500 for the coming year.

The above report includes all bills belonging to the school department for the year 1903.

The account shows overdrawn $505.44. This is entirely due to the two items of fuel and repairs. The fuel account is based upon higher prices per ton for coal than for several years, and we have had a larger quantity delivered, as, owing to the coal famine of 1902-3, we could only obtain coal in small lots, and there was none on hand in our bins in December, 1902, while we have at the present time the usual amount in the bins. The balance unexpended in 1902 will offset the amount overdrawn for fuel in 1903.

There has been an increase in the number of children in the town over previous years, due to the building of houses and occupancy by additional families. It became necessary, as stated at the March meeting in 1903, to open the remaining room in the old grammar school building in September, calling for an additional teacher. For the year 1904 we shall need to provide for running this room for the entire school year instead of one term.

Our superintendent, Mr. Herbert F. Taylor, was offered a position elsewhere at a very material advance last summer, but the joint district was fortunate in being able to make arrangements mutually satisfactory whereby he has remained with us.

The school buildings are now in reasonably good condition and repair, but the brick school building is lacking in one very material point, i. e., the capacity of the heating apparatus. The boiler, as nearly as we can ascertain by tests and examination, is only about two thirds the size that it should have been. The result is that during every extremely cold spell of weather it involves very much more labor and a waste of fuel, to keep the rooms in proper condition for the schools.

The boiler and building have been examined by the state inspector, by the maker of the boiler, and also by a competent disinterested steam engineer, all of whom confirm the facts, which have again during the present winter been confirmed by the daily results.

We have had an estimate made to cover the cost of an additional boiler to be used during such part of the year as needed, and recommend that this additional boiler be purchased and installed the coming season and that a special appropriation of $950 be made to cover this expense.

For the year 1904, we recommend an appropriation of $14,500, to include transportation of children from South Hope-dale, the continuation of kindergarten, and all other regular school expenses.

For the school committee,

FRANK J. DUTCHER,
Secretary.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE OF HOPEDALE:—

I herewith submit the tenth annual report of the superintendent of schools, and the second of the present incumbent.

The improvement in your schools during the time I have been connected with them has been along old-fashioned lines, for while there has been no change in the time schedule of studies, more emphasis has been placed on the three R's.

This emphasis has not been due to a failure to appreciate the value of the studies which have been introduced to enrich the grammar school course. These enrichment studies have not been introduced because of fads, as many people believe, but because, as society becomes more complex in its interests and requirements, the schools must meet the new conditions. Educators have sought to fit the children for life as they will find it when they leave school, not the life of fifty or even twenty-five years ago.

However, because of the increased time and attention given to the branches which enlarge the child's horizon and beautify his life, the tendency has been to neglect those branches which must furnish him the means of living. An increased knowledge of psychology and pedagogy has been applied in the effort to do the fundamentals more rapidly to get time for the newer branches, rather than to do the fundamentals better in the same time.

This has led to the criticisms that oratory or public speaking is a lost art, (a criticism which a perusal of the speeches made in Congress seems to bear out;) that the graduates of our public schools write badly, and add a column of figures with slowness and inaccuracy. The critics do not appreciate that the typewriter and adding machine will soon make writing and ciphering much less in demand than formerly, exactly as modern cotton machinery has relegated the spinning wheel and hand loom to the garret.

But because the demands of the business world require stenography and typewriting to do the work formerly done with a pen, the public high schools of those communities of sufficient size to demand it, have put in a business course. This is but a single illustration of the efforts of the school to adjust itself to the changed conditions of the life of today.

With these added demands on our public schools, demands which economic evolution will increase rather than decrease, it seems the part of wisdom to see to it that the best of the old is retained as a foundation upon which to build.

As reading is the most useful means of acquiring knowledge, special emphasis has been put on that during the past year. This has been done by insisting that all articulation from the printed or written page, whether concerning Arithmetic, Geography, History, or Literature, be clear and intelligent. Quantity has been deliberately sacrificed to quality with good results.

The last period on Fridays in both the grammar and high schools has been devoted to rhetorical, and the declamations have in many cases been the original compositions of the speakers.

In Arithmetic, Colburn's Intellectual Arithmetic has been placed in grades from four to nine inclusive, and daily drill from its pages required. This oral work might be preparatory to the written work of the day from the regular textbook, or it might be for the mental drill in arithmetic processes. The apparent result has been increased rapidity with the same or increased accuracy. It has not made, and will not make mathematical prodigies of our children, for the marvelous rapidity which astonishes us in the expert book-keeper or accountant was acquired in his daily contact with figures after he left school. It is the adaptation of his mental faculties to the conditions of life to which his tastes have attracted him.

Writing has also received much attention this year. As you know, many cities and towns of our state have adopted the medial slant to replace the vertical, on the plea that the vertical is slow, and distasteful to business men on that account. The slowness due to increased legibility we may readily pardon, even commend, but if the slowness is due to the same cause that made the old slant unsatisfactory, namely, poor teaching, we can disarm the criticism of slowness by better teaching.

If in the lower grades the teacher discusses carefully the proportions of each letter, and supplements such discussion by invariably forming the letters perfectly herself when writing on the board, it is possible for a child at the end of the sixth year to form the letters correctly. In the seventh, eighth and ninth grades make speed the chief aim, but insist that each letter be just as perfectly formed. Note-taking will not then degenerate into scribbling.

Whatever the final decision concerning the relative merits of the vertical and medial slant it would seem unwise to make a change in grades other than the primary, for as the present chaotic condition of our penmanship is due to a confusion of slants, to add another would be confusion worse confounded.

That the fine arts have received their share of attention may be determined by reading the reports of the special instructors in drawing and music. No more disinterested and therefore valuable commendation of the work of our special teachers can be found than in the unanimous praise accorded their work by the teachers and superintendents from other cities and towns who have visited Hopedale schools.

While the visits of the superintendents are most enjoyable, the joy is not always unmixed with regret, as they are often looking for teachers.

Thanks to a liberal policy on your part, the losses during the year have been few. Miss Watson resigned on account of ill health, and Miss Norman resigned during the spring term. Miss Marjorie Huse resigned to accept a position at Newton in December. Her withdrawal from the corps was a source of regret to school authorities and townspeople.

The size of the ninth grade did not permit its admission to the high school building as was done last year, so the last unoccupied room in the Hopedale Street building was opened with the sixth grade, the ninth being retained in the Dutcher Street building. This necessitated a new teacher, and Miss Bertha M. Rogers, a graduate of the Worcester Normal School and a teacher of five years' experience in the schools of Greenfield, was selected for the seventh grade. Miss A. Edith Taylor was elected to the eighth grade. This has, I think, materially strengthened the teaching in the upper grades. At the high school Miss Edith Goddard, a graduate of both college and normal school, is doing most satisfactory work.

Next year, for the first time in four years, there will be four classes at the high school, and while the total number of pupils will not much exceed fifty, it is only a matter of a short time when more room will be needed at that building.

That our efforts to instruct the children have not been along materialistic lines alone may be shown from the following works of art, added to the school rooms during the year: Bambino, by Andrea della Robbia; Boys with Trumpets and Boys with Drums, by Luca della Robbia; Diana of Versailles; bust of Shakespeare, by Roubilliac; the Triumph of Alexander, by Thorwaldsen.

Besides the above casts, two copies of the bust of Washington by Houdon were presented by Mr. F. J. Dutcher, and the pictorial story of the United States Flag, artistically framed, was given by the Woman's Relief corps.

The class of 1903 presented the high school with a facsimile of a portion of the frieze from the Parthenon. A fine carbon reproduction of Sir Galahad was also purchased.

The money for the purchase of the decorations was secured by a presentation of Dickens' "Cricket on the Hearth," given by local talent, most of whom were not connected with the public schools. Our most sincere thanks are extended them for the time and effort spent.

This in brief has been the work of the year, a year which has had a clearly defined aim, and a large measure of success in accomplishing the aim. This success has been almost entirely due to the earnest, conscientious efforts of the teachers, whose devotion and loyalty to their work merit the highest commendation.

I also wish to tender you my appreciation of your help and cordial support.

Respectfully submitted,

HERBERT F. TAYLOR,

Superintendent of Schools.

DRAWING TEACHER'S REPORT.

TO MR. H. F. TAYLOR, Superintendent of Schools:—

Truth and beauty are so closely allied that we may almost measure a country's morals as we may wholly measure its civilization by its standards in art. The aim and result, then, in the teaching of drawing is the elevation of public taste.

The school year has been one of pleasure and of growth. As last year, an endeavor has been made to keep the programs in harmony with the seasons, and thus to keep in touch with the beauty all about us.

Briefly outlined, the course is as follows: Nature study, to train the power of observation; color study, to train the color sense and teach the children how to use colors harmoniously; mechanical drawing, to train the eye and hand to obey the mind with perfect service; design, to lead the children to a love of the beautiful and develop the power of original expression.

The work has been carried on in the same manner as last year. Teachers' meetings are held to explain the work for each month, and a lesson given in each grade each week supplemented in the grades below the high school by lessons given by the regular teachers.

With such generous support from the committee and superintendent, and teachers ever ready to carry out any suggestions given, the results must be satisfactory.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE ROBINSON.

MUSIC TEACHER'S REPORT.

MR. TAYLOR, Superintendent of Schools:—

We are pleased to report that taking the various grades in the aggregate, vocal music has reached a higher educational basis than ever before. The lessons this year have been unusually good. The vocal melody averages better than last year. The ability to read music rapidly is steadily increasing.

In order to secure confidence in themselves, pupils in many schools have been asked to sing alone, or in duets and trios, and to apply in some pleasing exercise the knowledge and proficiency they have gained. Tone tests have frequently been given for the purpose of ear training. The sounds are given by voice, and the scholars repeat the sounds by name.

I wish to emphasize most heartily the ability of the regular teachers, whose co-operation has made a success of the study, and the faithful and studious work of the pupils, whose interest in, and love for the subject gives promise of still better results in the future.

LILLIAN E. WOOD,
Supervisor of Music.

BRIEF EXTRACTS FROM EDUCATIONAL LAWS.

1. All children between 7 and 14, unless sick, feeble-minded, at an approved private school, or otherwise instructed in branches required by law, to the satisfaction of the School Committee, must attend the public school during the entire time of each school year. Penalty to parent or guardian for failure in attendance for five days' sessions within any period of six months, $20.

2. No child under 14 shall be employed "in any factory, workshop, or mercantile establishment." "No such child shall be employed in any work performed for wages or other compensation" during the hours when the public school is in session nor before six o'clock in the morning, nor after seven in the evening.

3. No child under 16 shall be employed in any factory, workshop or mercantile establishment without a certificate from the Superintendent of Schools. He must present an employment ticket from the person who wishes to employ him, on applying for a certificate. The father, if living and a resident, must sign the certificate of age; if not, the mother; if neither, the guardian.

4. Children between 14 and 16 must either attend school or be regularly employed.

5. Children must be vaccinated before attending school, but a certificate from a regular physician, saying a child is an unfit subject for vaccination, allows attendance.

No child can attend school from a household in which there is a case of smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever or measles, or from a household exposed to a contagion from a household as aforesaid. Two weeks after the death, removal or recovery of the patient in a case of the first three mentioned, or three days after in a case of measles, the child may return on presentation of a certificate from the attending physician or from the board of health.

6. "The last regular session prior to Memorial Day, or a portion thereof, shall be devoted to exercises of a patriotic nature."

7. A United States flag not less than four feet in length shall be displayed on the schoolhouse grounds or building every school day, when the weather will permit, and on the inside of the schoolhouse on other school days.

8. A written excuse stating cause of absence, and signed by parent or guardian, must be presented by the pupil on his return to school.

9. "Every child under fourteen years of age who persistently violates the reasonable regulations of the school which he attends, or otherwise persistently misbehaves therein, so as to render himself a fit subject for exclusion therefrom, upon complaint by a truant officer, and conviction thereof, may be committed, if a boy, at the discretion of the court, to a county truant school for a period not exceeding two years, or to the Lyman school for boys, and if a girl, to the state industrial school for girls."

Eighteenth Annual Report of the Trustees of The Bancroft Memorial Library.

The trustees of The Bancroft Memorial Library respectfully submit the eighteenth annual report.

We have now been four years in our new library building, and we are much pleased to report that during the past year we have had the largest circulation of books in our history. Last year we reported that in purchasing books we had given special attention to books of travel; we have continued this plan till this department now compares favorably with the others in the library.

We are fortunate in being able to continue the services of Miss Sornborger as librarian. She is desirous of serving the patrons in every possible way, not only in assisting in the reference room, but in selecting books for general reading. She has continued the plan of keeping books on the charging desk, to call attention to much that is instructive and valuable. She is aided in this by the bulletin board, which has been introduced this year, on which she places notices and criticisms of our new books, and calls attention to important articles in our magazines and to many noteworthy current events.

The Library Art Club has sent us nine exhibits during the year, which have proved of much interest: Canadian Pacific, Birds, China, Scotland, Russia, Rome, South Kensington museum, Paris, Passion play, Nuremberg. Besides these, Mr. Bossom generously loaned us an exceedingly interesting exhibition of photographs, collected from various parts of our country; these were especially enjoyed, and for them we extend our thanks. The public schools gave an exhibition of drawing, done by pen and brush by the pupils. This seemed of mutual benefit, and especially attracted the parents, some of whom had never before been in our beautiful library.

Mrs. Fred Ball kindly presented us with the autographs of the following distinguished people: Mary A. Livermore, Julia Ward Howe, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Lucy Stone, Mary Mann, Oliver Johnson, Helen C. Lewis, and Dio Lewis.

At the request of several residents of South Hopedale, we opened a branch library on March 6, when seventeen books and eighteen cards were given out. Mrs. A. F. W. Smith offered to take charge of the work, without compensation, and the books were received at and delivered from her home for five months, when her removal from town necessitated a change. The thanks of the trustees and the citizens who were accommodated are publicly extended to her. Then Miss Dewing kindly assumed the responsibility, and the experiment is still going on. This privilege is extended only to citizens of the town. There are always fifty books or more from which the people can choose; they can have new books sent down every week, and they can leave their cards for any desired book. The first five months 534 books were given out, the next five 171. The first place was a geographical centre, which probably accounts for the larger distribution of books. The expense for the ten months was $7.73, a little more than a cent a book.

Many people who take magazines, after reading them, are glad to give some one else an opportunity to use them, but don't know how best to find readers. So we have placed a table inviting the people to give their recent publications, and inviting the public to take them. We have had hundreds generously given, and they have been eagerly taken. We shall continue this work, and we urge you who can, to give, and you who desire, to take.

We have finished putting in extra radiators in the stack room, which now permits us to keep the building comfortable, even in the coldest weather.

Again we wish to thank the public for constant and continued courtesy and consideration.

ANNA M. BANCROFT,
